

Remove me from the common contact register

Ref: 14/00634

If you want to be removed from the common contact register, please complete and submit this form to the Norwegian Digitalisation Agency.

You will get a confirmation that you have been removed from the common contact register to the address you specify in this form.

When you are removed from the common contact register, decisions and other important letters from the public sector and local authorities will be sent to you on paper. Once your mobile number and email address is deleted from the common contact register, you will not receive any type of information or service messages from the public sector by SMS or email.

NOTE: When removed from the common contact register you can't use MinID to login to public services online. You can however still log in to public services with BankID, Buypass and Commfides.
